

T H E A L B E R T I N A K E R R

RACE FOR THE ROSES

Good Cause. Great Race.

Team Captain Sheet

- Always remember to take advantage of the talents & skills of your team members to make your job more manageable.
- Registering your team is simple & easy to do! See Registration Instruction Sheet.
- Any donation, no matter how small, helps children and adults in need. 100% of proceeds benefit Albertina Kerr, a local Portland non-profit. Albertina Kerr strengthens Oregon families and communities by helping children and adults with developmental disabilities and mental health challenges, empowering them to live richer lives.
- Being part of a team creates lasting memories and enriches the lives of those involved.

Keys to Being a Successful Team Captain

- Start early & set an aggressive goal.
- Provide leadership - know when to delegate.
- Hold fun & informational meetings regularly.
- Encourage race training meet-ups.
- Inspire, motive & appreciate team's work.
- Communication is key - email, text, social.

Team Captain Responsibilities

- Recruit your team & keep them motivated.
- Set team & individual fundraising goals.
- Provide tools & materials to help team.
- Schedule, host & attend regular meetings.
- Encourage team personal donations.
- Remind that together network is larger.

RacefortheRoses.org

 Facebook.com/RacefortheRoses

100% of proceeds benefit Albertina Kerr, a local Portland non-profit. Albertina Kerr strengthens Oregon families and communities by helping children and adults with developmental disabilities and mental health challenges, empowering them to live richer lives.

